

Employment Benefits Brochure

You are an employee recruiter for one of the following companies:

- Google
- Home Depot
- McDonalds
- Wells Fargo
- UPS
- Zappos

Your boss has called you into a meeting and has informed you that “Insert Company” needs to hire 50 new employees. Your task is to encourage potential employees to choose your company to work for. You will create a brochure that informs potential employees about all of you company’s employee benefits.

Use Word, Google Docs, Publisher, Sway, etc. to create your brochure. If you want to use a software not listed, please get permission from your instructor before continuing.
